

Prize Announcement

The Coronavirus Discourses team were delighted to receive The People's Choice Award for Best Use of Innovative Methods at the Public Health Wales Research and Evaluation Conference, 2021.

At the conference, we shared insights from our research on health inequalities and Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic populations, and we highlighted the importance of community specific engagement.

Please visit the C19comms website to view the presentation and follow updates on the research: c19comms.wp.horizon.ac.uk

C19COMMS

Coronavirus Discourses

The University of Nottingham in collaboration with Cardiff University is working in partnership with Public Health England, Public Health Wales, and NHS Education for Scotland to investigate linguistic evidence for effective public health messaging.